Mrs. Winchester has approved of plans for the very handsome apartment house which she is to have built at the junction of Whitney avenue and Temple street, as previously announced. The work will begin in the spring. The house will be seven stories high, with six suites of rooms, all elegantly equipped. The building will be of terra cotta brick similar to those used in the construction of the big office building of the Consolidated road.

Rev. Dr. Burdett Hart, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Perkins, in Philadelphia, is staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Hemingway, in Fair Haven, Dr. Hart still retains his citizenship in New Haven. He came on here recently from Philadelphia, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Perkins, and her husband, Mr. Abram Perkins. The latter has returned to Philadelphia, where he is a prominent business man, being one of the leading dry goods merchants of that city, successor of his father and grandfather in the business.

Mrs. Augustus Kimberly gave a dance last evening for her daughter, Miss Mildred Wilson. Champion decorated the house with potted plants, and Dard, the New York florist, furnished the flowers. There were between thirty and forty present, and the strains of Weil's orchestra seemed to lend wings to the feet of the happy, joyous young people. A few of those present were Miss Susan Whiting, Miss Margaret Foster, Miss Caroline Duer and her friend, Miss Angelica Duer, Miss Susan Wright, Miss Bessie Rogers, Miss Gertrude Harrison, and Miss Genevieve Cooper of Denver, a guest in the house; Miss Agatha Alling, also Messrs, Townsend, Cheney, Stoddard, Whittemore, Stuart, Hotchkiss, Osborn, Day, Ralph, Van Name and many others.

od Sleighing on Whalley Avenue Enjoyed by Participants and Spectators. There was a lively sleighing carnival on Whalley avenue yesterday afternoon when many of the fast horses owned in this city were showing their speed and style on this popular drive, which has been reduced in width by the additional track of the railroad company. Among those with speedy horses on the avenue during the afternoon were Sidney Smith with the trotter New Engingham (2:34%), by Phit Sheridan.

There were also William Burke with Palmer with a good going chestnut-col-

Pyramid Lodge.

Pyramid lodge, A. O. U. W., will have its annual installation of officers and banquet at Pyramid hall on Monday evening, January 14. Pyramid lodge has been giving a series of very pleasant entertainments for their members At the last one Mr. Harry Bush of Eld street, one of the members, was present with his phonograph, which was pronounced by the company to be one of the finest they have heard. ON THE CONSOLIDATED.

Reported Railroad Changes Impending. Connecticut Press dispatch last night says: It is rumored in this city that the management of the Consolidated road are contemplating a shake-up in several of the offices of the road. It is stated that among the officers who are to go is Superintendent Allen Ostrander of the Air Line division. It is also stated that Superintendent Peter E. Bowman, who was in charge of the making up of trains at New York, will succeed Superintendent Ostrander on the Air Line division. Neither President Clark nor any of the other officials of the road could be found this evening and nothing further could be learned regarding the reported changes, ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperion. Comstock's Minstrels make their first appearance in this city to-morrow evening. Among the company are some old favorites, including Willis P. Sweatnam and Hughey Dougherty. An exchange says: "Mr. Sweatnam chatted to the andience in a droll, disconnected and reminiscent sort of way that was irresistibly funny. And though but few could possibly have failed to know the tale of the Black bootblack and the land Boy, E. N. Petitt with the fast white bootblack, it was comically told, pacer Harry H., N. B. Bush of West- and the utilitarian idea of a man who ville with the well bred Rhode Island had been trepanned having his name Boy, S. S. Thompson with his favorite and address engraved on the silver roadster, Herman Fox with his race plate excited hysterical laughter when winner Estelle (2:2614), Charles Cook, Mr. Swentnam lisped it out with a the trainer, with his bay trotter Rock-serious air and a ludicrous lingual impediment." Sale of seats now open.

Roland Reed has certainly found an excellent character in Gen. Josiah Limhis fast gray horse Dan, and Frank ber in "The Politician," which he will produce on Monday evening, January 7th. He wins such hearty applause nightly as to leave no doubt in the mind of any one that it is the best part occasioned some inquiries among the he has ever enacted. Miss Isadore Rush, many spectators on the sidewalks. The gray is a mare five years old called patra Sturgess," shares the honors with Sale of seats opens Friday morning.

Grand Opera House.

"Hoss and Hoss," which was presented at the Grand opera house last evening, is too well known for comment. The company which presents it is composed of meritorious players and their adaptation to the farce is excellent. Thomas D. Daly, well known in this city, is introduced and given a position in the company wherein his ability can Reilly, father of Kitty, all of 304 Woos be seen to much advantage. Mr. Daly showed at last evening's performance that he is capable of filling his part of performance Mr. Daly sang several so-los and he was repeatedly encored.
